ESTABLISH THREE DISASTER RELIEF STATIONS HERE

If and when bombs are dropped in Daly City and disaster strikes a blow at local residents, the victims will be cared for at three disaster relief centers, it was announced, this week, by R. L. Crane jr., manager of shelter procurement.

The centers are Woodrow Wilson school, Santa Barbara avenue, between Knowles and Vista Grande avenue; General Pershing school, Hanover street, between Oliver and Acton streets; and Jefferson Union high school, 6996 Mission street. All centers were established and will be directed by the San Mateo County Red Cross Disaster Relief committee. The two grammar schools were named by Crane, while Jefferson Union high school had already been set up as an emergency medical center by the Civilian Defense Council prior to the

Colma Volunteers In Demonstration

"Enemy planes" simulated an attack on the town of Colma, Thursday evening, in a mass demonstration that was well executed by all volunteers of the city, according to John H. Price, Colma's director of civilian defense.

"Everything went off in fine shape," Price said, "and the members of our civilian defense organization really did a very fine job." Assisting Price in planning the drill was Bradford S. Welch, assistant director.

Going into action in the control center at 6:30 p. m., when the yellow signal was given, Police Chief Joseph Cavalli and a corps of messengers reported to the center. The yellow signal signified the approach of unidentified

Arthur Quirmbach Reports For Duty

Daly City's Civilian Defense Council and Jefferson Union high school both sacrificed a leading official for the duration, when Arthur H. Quirmbach reported for military duty with Uncle Sam, Friday.

Having served as a chemistry instructor in the local high school, Quirmbach joins a number of other Jefferson faculty members in the armed forces. No announcement has yet been made by the high school regarding Quirmbach's transfer to military duty.

Instrumental in organizing the local civilian defense organization into a wartime corps after America entered the war, he will be

Can You Qualify For This Sticker?

An "I Am Prepared" sticker in the window in every home in Daly City is the desire of the Civilian Defense Council. It is launching a campaign this week for everyone in the community to prepare their homes for an air raid.

Simple enough are the requirements for Daly City residents to get a sticker for their window, according to Arthur J. Bodien, chairman of civilian defense. Each home must be equipped with five implements to be adequately prepared: (1) sand, (2) shovel, (3) rake, (4) ladder, and (5) hose.

The plan was inaugurated by the Civilian Defense Council a few weeks ago, and the stickers will be issued by block air raid wardens in the city.

When your home has been properly equipped with the necessary tools listed above, report to your block air raid warden for your "I Am Prepared" sticker. Many homes, it was pointed out, already have all of these tools, but the Office of Civilian Defense asks that the tools be placed in a convenient place in your home where they can be reached quickly in case of fire or other emergencies.

Blood Bank Seeks Daly City Donors

Appointment of Mrs. Catherine Foreman, 35 Woodrow street, as Daly City chairman was announced this week by the San Mateo County Blood Bank committee.

Now organized throughout the county under the supervision of the county medical association, the Blood Bank made an appeal to the citizens of Daly City to contribute blood to the bank. Organized to safeguard the lives, through blood transfusions, of county residents, the bank stores blood plasma secured by donations. It is this plasma that is used in transfusions.

Crane To Direct Salvage For Victory

Re-appointment of R. L. Crane jr. as chairman of the Daly City Salvage for Victory committee was made by the Civilian Defense Council in a session, last week.

Although Crane had resigned the post a few weeks ago, because of the pressure of duties in other civilian defense capacities, he was urged by both city officials and civilian defense leaders of the community to take up salvage duties again. Having just completed the drive for scrap rubber, the community is in the midst of several drives for salvaging articles valuable to national defense.

Purchase of 150 more helmets for more volunteers who have completed basic training, yet have received no helmets, was recommended to the city council by the defense council.

Another recommendation made

Save That Fat To "Fry" Hitler

Hitler and company have taken plenty of "panings," both literally and figuratively, in Daly City, but it looks like his "goose is cooked" for certain this week.

Daly City housewives, armed with skillets and frying pans, began, Tuesday, to save waste fats and grease in the local salvage drive for these substances, which are in such great demand in national war production. The grease is used in the manufacture of munitions and high explosives.

The nation is resorting to this campaign for grease and waste fats to offset the shortage of vegetable oils. Normally used for

Colma Council Plans Drainage System

A plan to protect property in the town of Colma against floods or heavy rainfall was adopted, Monday, by the town council at their regular meeting.

Designed to control the flow of excess water in the properties of Cypress Lawn and Holy Cross cemeteries, the plan calls for the installation of a drainage system. A 24-inch concrete pipe will be constructed underneath the Southern Pacific tracks, causing the water to flow through the pipe

Leave Those Records At Your Grocery Store

"Records for Our Fighting men," a drive sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary to salvage shellac and other war materials and to raise funds for new phonograph records for service men, will be launched in Daly City, Monday. Local grocery stores will serve as collection centers.

Supervising the local campaign are Mrs. Marcie Trier, representing Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary, and A. G. K. Jakobsen, representing Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion. The drive will continue for two weeks.

All local residents were urged to enter the drive by going through their phonograph records, picking out the ones which are no longer used, and taking them to their grocery store. Records that are cracked, scratched, or broken can be used just as well as records that are whole, since the records are melted anyway. In addition to salvaging the shellac, the records aid the war effort in raising funds to purchase new records for service men. They are placed in USO and Red Cross centers, and in other recreation centers in camps.

Get Ready Now For Big Junk Rally

Want to do your share to see that there's no more of this "too little and too late" stuff?

Here's how: get ready for Daly City's big Junk Rally. Line up old stoves, radiators, plumbing, tools, toys, beds, cooking utensils, rods, batteries, tire chains, pipes of all kinds, lighting fixtures—anything metal. Then, when your local salvage committee announces the rally date, give your cast-off metal objects to help make more shells, guns, ships, tanks, armored cars, submarines—all machines and arms of warfare.

This community joins the nation in launching the new scrap metals drive. War Production Chief Donald Nelson warns of a "desperate" situation in steel

District Rationing Board Moves Office

Daly City persons who make application for purchase of rationed goods must apply to 143 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, beginning Monday, it was announced by the San Mateo County Rationing Board, Northern District, No. 41-2.

The board will move into the new office over the week-end, and they will open in the new headquarters next week. Having formerly been quartered in the South San Francisco post office, the board moved the office to obtain more space.

Additional help is also being sought for the present over-taxed personnel in the office.

Daly City prepared to take its sweet tooth out of moth balls, this week, as extra sugar bonuses were announced for stamps Nos. 5, 6, and 7 by the board.

Ration stamps Nos. 5, 6, and 7 will be good for two extra pounds of sugar. All you have to do is step up to your local grocer and collect it. An extra quantity will also be made available to industrial and institutional users as an increase in their July and August allotments.

Daly City Gave 100 Tons Of Rubber

By BOB BAKER

Like on the far flung battlefronts of the United Nations, the cry which is echoed throughout the nation is ACTION! And when President Roosevelt asked for action to collect rubber in a national drive, Daly City gave plenty!

From sixteen service stations in Daly City and from the community's thousands of action-minded patriots, Uncle Sam's rubber stock was increased by over 100 tons! Final figures compiled by R. L. Crane jr., chairman of the Daly City Salvage for Victory Committee, showed a total of 203,100 pounds collect-

Local Landlords Fill Out OPA Forms

So that the federal government can be certain that landlords are complying with the rent-control law, Daly City's landlords began answering questionnaires yesterday. The registration of all property owners who rent property will continue today and tomorrow.

The order for registration with the federal government includes all landlords, and failure to fill out the questionnaire before August 15 will result in a $5000 fine, or one year in jail, or both.

The forms, which will be handed out at registration centers, must be made out in triplicate. One copy is filed in the area office in San Francisco, a second copy will be given to the landlord, and the third copy, to the tenant.

Three registration places are open in Daly City today and tomorrow. Following are the loca-

"Keep It Under 40" Drive Gets Teeth

Automobile drivers in San Mateo county who violate the "Keep It Under 40" program will not receive new tires, retreads, or other rationed automobile equipment in the future, it has been announced by Paul I. Fagan, county co-ordinator for OPA.

Daly City drivers, who make application through the San Mateo county branch office of the OPA in South San Francisco, were subject to the strict county order. The rule took effect, yesterday, and Fagan notified law enforcement officials in the coun-

Community Did Lots Of Reading This Year

If "reading is the divine food for thought," Daly City people have been doing plenty of both reading and thinking in the past year.

The Daly City Public Library has circulated a total of 36,521 books in the past twelve months, averaging more than 3,000 books a month to local registered borrowers. Although this total includes both city and county books, 34,923 of the books which were checked out are city books. Registered borrowers at the library number 1959.

The above figures are based on the yearly report of the fiscal year of 1941-42, compiled by Mrs. Jean O'Rourk, city librarian.

COUNCILMEN GIVE FINAL WARNING TO FOUR OWNERS

Last minute warnings before condemnation proceedings begin were voiced by the city council, Monday, to four Daly City property owners whose properties have been named as public nuisances.

Although Arthur J. Bodien, city building inspector, submitted all four of the addresses for immediate condemnation by the city, the council granted an extension of thirty days for owners to make sufficient improvements. The buildings and property in question must pass the approval of Bodien before proceedings will be waived, warned Mayor A. J. Gaggero.

Bodien's report included violations of the public health and safety code in each case. Defective plumbing, weak flooring, and breeding places for rats were a few violations in the report which were common in each case.

Issuance of bonds in the South end street project, which was scheduled for Monday night, was postponed for two weeks. The postponement was made at the request of the Kirkbride and Wilson law firm, which is representing the contractor in the pending suit filed by protesting property owners in the South end.

The council adopted a resolution authorizing the city to be represented by the Peninsula committee of the League of California Cities to secure Daly City's share of the gas tax funds received by the county.

A motion was passed providing for the purchase of $205,300 worth of war risk insurance on city equipment, and city buildings. Premium price paid by the city was $384.

The council moved to aid in financing a Civilian Defense Handbook for local citizens to

Large Crowds Visit Fire Houses

Dedicating the two new firehouses in Daly City, the fire department played host to a large crowd at an open house ceremony which continued all day, Sunday.

The Daly City Fire department, in full force, was on display from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. When the visitors entered the firehouses, they were shown all the fire apparatus. Firemen explained the various parts of each fire truck, including the squad wagon and two new 600 gallon pumpers.

Inhalators, bandages, and all first aid equipment on the squad wagon were laid out, and the function of each was described. From the squad wagon, the visitors were shown the pumper trucks, and several questions were answered by firemen about the equipment.

After the demonstration of the equipment, visitors were shown around the firehouses which were

Seventy To Don Uncle Sam's Khaki

Seventy young men of this area will report for physical examinations and don the khaki of Uncle Sam's fast growing army, today, as Daly City Draft Board No. 103 completes the first contingent of a huge quota for July.

Although the last group that left Daly City for the army numbered 139 and broke a record for the local board for monthly inductions, the July contingents will probably break all records, according to Dr. J. C. McGovern, chairman of the board. The three quotas which the War department are asking of the local draft board for this month will take almost two hundred men from the Daly City board's area, Dr. McGovern said.

Reservoir of 1-A registrants in the local board are decreasing rapidly, and the draft board carried on a detailed survey of all selectees eligible for military duty to be inducted today. A lengthy session of the board to pass on these men ensued, last Tuesday night. It was not until ute a pint of blood per person, stated that transportation will be furnished all donors to the Blood Bank headquarteds in San Mateo if they will contact her. She can be contacted, either by phone or mail, at 35 Woodrow street, phone Randolpn 10376.

The plan for transporting donors to San Mateo, which is now in operation, is that an automobile is sent to Daly City when Mrs. Foreman has a group of four or five who can make the trip at one time. The process of contributing the blood does not take long. All that is asked of the donor is to notify Mrs. Foreman of intention to contribute.

ed in Daly City throughout the entire drive.

Crane expressed much satisfaction with the outstanding record set up by the community, and highly praised those who participated.

"I am extremely gratified with the fine spirit which Daly City people showed in helping the nation's critical rubber situation," said Crane.

"Both the service stations and the contributors certainly displayed patriotism in no uncertain terms by this drive."

Service stations in the city set individual records which were outstanding in the community's drive. The Union Oil company station, Junipero Serra boulevard and School street, set a high mark by turning in 60,000 pounds alone to the drive. Better yet was the contribution of the Texaco station, Market and Mission streets, Colma, where 70,000 pounds was turned in. Two other stations with high marks were Conci's Shell service, Mission and Hillside boulevard, 18,000, and Magnus Hammar's Shell station, 6098 Mission street, 15,000.

Remarkable in the service station's part in the campaign was the fact that they didn't wait for people to come to the service station with scrap rubber—they went out and got it! Joe Carr, proprietor of Carr's Service station, 6755 Mission street, which collected 5,342 pounds of rubber, claims that his slogan, "I'll take your pants if you don't bring in scrap rubber," brought exceptional results from customers.

San Mateo county, by virtue of collections like Daly City's, continued to hold their high place in the state salvage drive with a collection of 1,444,300 pounds of rubber.

tions: Bank of America, Daly City branch, 6298 Mission street; Lagomarsino and Company Insurance office, 7100 Mission street; and R. C. MacArthur Realty office, 6301 Mission street. The latter two locations are open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The bank will be open for registration during regular banking hours.

Landlords will be asked seven questions, which deal, in turn, with the amount of rent asked for the property in March, period when it was rented, what changes made in the unit, reasons for raises in rent in the past three months, if any, and the maximum legal rent which should be charged.

FRESH FISH

Fresh fish can be judged by the flesh which should be firm and elastic. If gently pressed the flesh will spring back showing no dent. Gills should be bright red in color with a pleasant characteristic "fresh" odor.

Japanese Intern Two Local Men At Shanghai

Two brothers of a Daly City family, John I. Goodpasture and Dexter Goodpasture, are being interned by the Japanese at Shanghai, it was announced, Monday, by the War department.

The release from Washington included the names of 297 American civilians who are being held there by the Japanese.

The two men are the sons of Mrs. Mary Goodpasture, who lived with another son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Goodpasture, 425 Wellington avenue. However, the mother of the two boys is now living in Portland, Oregon.

The two men were taken captives on Wake Island early this year when the outpost fell into enemy hands. Both men were employed as carpenters on an American defense project on the island at the time of their capture. No direct word has been received from them by their mother since their internment.

Dexter's wife and daughter now reside in Burbank, California. John is unmarried.

Continue Case Of Jeff Burglar

The case of Joseph Emerson Gonsalves, Oakland farm laborer who is charged with burglarizing Jefferson Union high school two weeks ago, was continued to superior court in Redwood City, following a preliminary hearing here, Friday.

After hearing the testimony of Officer George Savage of the Daly City Police department, the court placed the case in the hands of the superior court. An effort will be made to convict Gonsalves on criminal charges, according to Deputy District Attorney Burress Karmel.

The defendant pled guilty to the burglary charges and declined to testify in Friday's preliminary hearing. He admitted to police, according to the officer's testimony, that he attempted to get money from the high school office. He showed them how he had entered the building by prying the lock off a rear door.

Horror Film Now At Daly City

A horror role to rival his infamous "Dracula" is played again by Bela Lugosi in Universal's eerie horror drama, "The Ghost of Frankenstein," now at the Daly City theatre.

Lugosi re-creates the role of "Ygor," mad shepherd who survives a hanging which has broken his neck, and who befriends the Frankenstein Monster.

"Ygor" seems destined to become a "favorite" of horror fans, and Lugosi hopes that the history of his "Dracula" interpretation will not repeat itself with "Ygor."

The stage and screen versions of "Dracula" brought Lugosi fame, but they also plunged him into oblivion. Following his portrayal of the vampire, Lugosi was "typed" in horror films and, his scope limited, the actor was almost lost to the screen for several years.

"Son of Frankenstein" offered Lugosi a "comeback" role in 1939, however, and his career was resumed.

Other featured players in "The Ghost of Frankenstein" are Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Lon Chaney, Ralph Bellamy, Lionel Atwill and Evelyn Ankers. Erle C. Kenton directed and George Waggner was the producer.

LET'S WAKE UP

"As a nation, Americans haven't been fighting this war—not by a long shot," said Life recently. "A comparative handful of boys and officers have been fighting bravely and eagerly. But at home the fighting hasn't even begun. Most of America is earning big money, eating well, dashing around the country on rubber that is absolutely irreplaceable . . . The only battle the U. S. citizens have won so far is the battle of newspaper headlines . . . Meanwhile the Axis pushes in, rings us with steel, accumulates real bases all over the world."

That is a pretty tough statement, but the facts certainly bear it out. The incredible optimism concerning the war that still seems to prevail in some quarters is not shared by real military men. As General Somervell, the Army's chief of supply, said in a Fourth of July speech at Detroit, the United Nations have taken a terrific shellacking in every corner of the world. And most of us, he added, have no idea of the magnitude and difficulty of the job that lies ahead. The hard truth is that Hitler and his brother dictators have done more to change the map of the world than any conquerors in modern history.

The Russians showed great valor in the defense of Sevastopol. They were hopelessly outnumbered in both men and equipment, and after the first few days the Luftwaffe had command of the skies. The Red Army made the Germans pay tremendously for their victory, and, according to the Moscow account, Sevastopol was left a pile of useless ruins. But Sevastopol was a vital position, and its loss is extremely important. Now Germany can release many battle-trained soldiers for service elsewhere. Sevastopol is a key point in Hitler's drive to seize the oil resources of the Caucasus, and to shatter the U. S. supply line to Russia. That is why the German commanders figured it must be taken, no matter how great the cost.

At this time, it is impossible to explain the British defeat in Libya—the facts are not available, and the Cairo censorship has been complete. As Churchill frankly admitted, the British had the edge in numbers and in arms. The fate of Libya was settled on a single day—when 300 heavy British tanks went into action, and only seventy were left at night-fall. No comparable losses, Churchill said, were inflicted on the enemy. Rommel seems to have lured the British into a trap. The British commanders seemed confident that Rommel could not fight an offensive action in the desert heat. But Rommel did.

As yet, we have not fully appreciated the extraordinary fanaticism of Axis leaders and troops. With them it is "win or die." They take incredible chances. They fight under the worst climatic and geographical conditions. They violate classic rules of warfare. The commanders are, apparently, completely callous when it comes to shedding the blood of their compatriots. These Axis hordes can be compared in many respects to the brutal hordes of Ghengis Khan. To stop them, to defeat them, will require a comparable fanaticism, held in a very different cause, on the part of all the United Nations.

From the U. S. point of view, the Jap landings in the Aleutians cannot be passed off casually, as some optimists have tried to do. It is true that a few rock islands, shrouded in fog, off the tip of Alaska, aren't important in themselves. It is also true that Aleutian and Alaskan outposts could be used for devastating raids on the U. S. proper. General Billy Mitchell once said, in effect, that whoever controls Alaska would win the next war. There is no reason to suppose that the Japs raided Dutch Harbor and seized remote Attu and Kiska just for the sake of what military men call a diversion. The Jap commanders have shown, all along, that everything they do is part of a carefully-prepared plan, and that everything has a bearing on their grand strategy. It will be hard to drive the Japs out of their Aleutian footholds. The Axis is seeking to encircle this country now, and it has made gigantic progress. That circle must be broken.

Registration Shows Drop Of 5.4 Per Cent

Registration of voters in San Mateo county has dropped 5.4 per cent since the general election of 1940, according to the report of registration made by W. H. Augustus, county clerk, to the secretary of state.

In 1940, when the last general election was held, there were 67,064 registered voters in this county, and in June of this year the total was 63,449. Population of the county, during the two-year period, has shown an increase of 13.6 per cent.

County Clerk Augustus said, "All citizens who desire to vote at the primary election, August 25, should immediately make sure that they are properly registered. The registration books will be closed today, July 16, for the primary election; therefore any citizen who has changed his place of residence or has changed his legal name, and any citizen who has reason to think that his registration has been cancelled, should make sure of his registration without delay."

IN THE BLACK

State Controller Harry B. Riley today announced that California began its new fiscal year, July 1, with a general fund cash excess of $13,861,400.

"For the first time in nine years we have entered a fiscal year with our books in the black," Controller Riley said.

CALIFORNIA RESPONDS

Of the 1654 binoculars accepted by the Navy since February 10, 287 were donated by Californians. Only New York with 381 donations exceeded California. In spite of the excellent public response to the drive the Navy department reports the supply of binoculars is still far below the needs of the Naval Forces.

Maybe They Never Heard Of Safety First

In the face of the nation's plea to cut down speed limits and take better care of automobiles, one reckless driver and two other drivers, each charged with drunken driving, will appear in municipal court tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

All three were arrested over the week-end by Daly City police, booked through the local department, and bails were set.

George M. Smedley, 6991 Mission street, was arrested Sunday afternoon on Mission street, where he was reported as driving his car recklessly, not only on the streets but in private property. Officer Roland Petrocchi, who arrested Smedley, said that the latter had driven the car into the Dolan Lumber yard, 6939 Mission street, in a reckless manner, then drove out again. He then drove into the Golden West Auto court in the same way. He was booked for reckless driving, and released on payment of a $25 cash bail.

William John Kelley, San Francisco, faces drunken driving charges after being arrested shortly before midnight, Saturday. He was driving south on Mission street at a 65 mile an hour clip when he was overtaken by officers. Sergeant W. W. Sunderland and Officer Joe Kusber noted that the brakes on Kelley's machine were in poor condition. He was released until court convenes tomorrow after paying a $50 bail.

The third week-end violator, Joseph Brees, San Francisco, was taken from the wheel of his automobile in an intoxicated condition, according to police, early Sunday morning. His bail was set at $50 and he was released to appear tomorrow.

The Lung Irritants

By Dr. Ward L. Mould, Medical Gas Officer, U. S. Office of Civilian Defense.

(This is the fourth of a series of six articles about war gases, their characteristics, and measures the civilian can take to protect himself against gas injury.)

Most of the known lung irritant gases are "non-persistent"—that is, they are quickly diluted by air to such an extent that they are incapable of causing injury. Chlorine, which has a pungent odor; phosgene, which smells like fresh cut hay; and chlorpicrin, which has a sweetish odor like fly paper, compose this group.

Of the non-persistent gases the one most likely to be used is phosgene. A moderate amount of phosgene in the area will cause a "catching of the breath" and a sense of tightness in the chest. Other than this momentary discomfort, the individual may have no symptoms for as long as twenty-four hours. If injury has been mild, there may be some increase in the breathing rate. The injured person becomes drowsy and may fall asleep, feeling refreshed on waking. He will probably experience some tightness in his chest and have a cough.

With more serious injury, breathing becomes more difficult and a bluish color may creep over the face, first appearing about the lips.

Lung irritants impair the ability of the lungs to absorb oxygen. To lessen the victim's need for oxygen, he must be kept at absolute rest, and must remain in bed for twenty-four to forty-eight hours, even if no symptoms develop.

If symptoms develop, even those indicating only slight injury, the injured person must be cared for by a doctor.

With proper rest and hospital care, complete recovery will occur in nearly all lung irritant cases. Research shows that, contrary to the current public conception, those who recover from injuries caused by these gases are no more susceptible to pneumonia and tuberculosis than persons who have not been gassed.

Tear gas and sneeze and vomiting gas are non-persistent agents which may be classed as "Nuisance Gases." Symptoms appear quickly after exposure. Tear gas causes smarting and watering of the eyes. The individual should leave the affected area immediately, facing the wind and keeping the eyes open. Symptoms will quickly disappear. Eyes should not be rubbed or bandaged.

Sneeze and vomiting gases cause considerable distress of a temporary nature. Following exposure, the nose should be washed out with a solution containing a teaspoonful of baking soda to a glass of luke-warm water. This will neutralize the agent and reduce discomfort. If severely gassed with these types, a short period of bed rest is required.

James Bergin, 64, succumbed to a short illness in a San Mateo hospital, Saturday. He lived at 44 Miriam street and was a resident of this community for 22 years.

He is survived by his widow, Catherine Bergin; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Cunningham, and Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton; two sons Thomas and James Bergin; and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Windle.

Services were held, Tuesday morning, at 8:30 a. m. from the W. C. Lasswell company chapel. Requiem high mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church at 9 a. m. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.

the manufacture of munitions, the vegetable oils are unavailable from foreign sources because of the war.

R. L. Crane jr., salvage chairman in Daly City, appealed to every local housewife, family cooks, and to all restaurants of the community to save this grease and take it to the butcher shops in tin containers. Any local butcher shop is a collection depot for this material. All donors were instructed not to use glass containers. Grease cannot be salvaged after it has been in a glass. Also, cooked fats are to be kept separate from raw fats.

the extent of $100, to be published by the Daly City Record.

Upon request of Councilman Edmund Cavagnaro, the council passed a motion which authorized all city departments to submit to the board a thorough inventory of all supplies each year on June 1. The motion, however, made an exception of this year, when the inventory must be submitted at the earliest date possible.

Association Reports Per Capita Cost Low

Indication that San Mateo County government is operated on a sound business basis was shown, recently, in publication of the per capita cost of government figures for all counties by the California Taxpayers association.

The report shows that San Mateo county maintained its place as having the second lowest per capita cost of government in the state, being edged out for first place only by Solano county.

Further details of the report may be read in the ad on page 2.

disaster relief establishment. The unit is equipped fully for immediate use. If regular hospitals cannot be reached in time when medical attention is needed, patients can be treated here.

All three of the centers are completely staffed and ready to function, Crane stated. He will be in charge of all three centers, and has an assistant chairman at each center. Mrs. Ida Hanley, 43 Woodrow street, is assistant chairman at Woodrow school, and Mrs. Allene Lehigh, 563 Crocker avenue, is in charge at Pershing school.

One of the most important services which will be handled at the disaster relief center is that of registration and information. Heading this service in the Daly City centers is Howard McHugh, 247 Oliver street, who is also on the local Civilian Defense Council. A. D. Delucchi, 241 Oliver street, is assistant chairman of this service.

When a disaster sufferer is treated or cared for in any way at the center, the name, address, and other pertinent information is registered, so that relatives can be informed without delay.

Procurement and distribution of food to disaster victims will be managed by Mrs. Ethel Dorn, 2 Risel street, who is canteen chairman of the Daly City Red Cross. This division will supply food to all victims whose food source has been cut off in a disaster. Co-chairman for canteens, to be stationed at each center, are Mrs. Maude Hanselman, 47 Woodrow street, Woodrow Wilson school, and Mrs. Ann Eason, 924 Hanover street, Pershing school.

Clothing for disaster sufferers will be procured and distributed by a committee headed by Mrs. R. L. Crane jr., 140 Woodrow street. An assistant chairman for clothing is Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, 569 Winchester street, who will represent all the centers.

Mrs. Emile Lohr, R. N., 24 Hillcrest drive, was named special nurse to serve all of the centers.

greatly missed on the Civilian Defense Council. Not only was Quirmbach a charter member of the Daly City Defense Council, but he also aided in the formation of the San Mateo County Defense Council, where he served as chairman of public information.

Quirmbach's wide span of duties with Daly City defense began with the formation and direction of air raid wardens and gas decontamination squad. He is an authority on chemical war gases.

planes. Thirteen minutes later, the blue (warning) signal was sounded, and air raid wardens, under the direction of M. Jay Jensen, chief warden; ambulance teams, under Captain John Newton; and auxiliary police were called. Two first aid station attendants, Mrs. Mildred Price, Mrs. Edna Jensen, reported for duty at the station in the control center.

The "enemy planes" were reported overhead at 6:57 p. m. when the air raid siren on the roof of the city hall sounded. The red signal had been given and the raid was on!

In less than five minutes, the two story home on Hillside boulevard and F street, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Mattrup Jensen, was "struck" by an incendiary bomb, causing a "fire." The report came into the control center from Air Raid Warden District No. 1. The control center quickly dispatched the Colma Volunteer Fire department, and they arrived on the scene in 3½ minutes. A small traffic detail was also dispatched to the scene.

Ambulances were sent to districts 6 and 4 to transport "injured persons" for medical attention.

The all clear signal was given at 7:30 p. m. All members went to the city hall emergency station to witness the arrival of ambulances and the manner in which patients are admitted and treated at the newly equipped first aid station there. R. L. Gray, instructor of Red Cross First Aid, checked on the casualties, their treatment, and methods of bandaging employed.

Witnessing the demonstration within the control center were: Mayor Paul Delucchi, Councilman Mattrup Jensen, City Judge C. E. Lowe, and City Clerk E. A. Weisenburger. After the drill, the town council invited all the civilian defense workers to the city hall for coffee and doughnuts.

MEET THE MEN SEEKING COUNTY AND STATE OFFICES

County Supervisor

Fred E. Beer

With the closing of nominations for county offices, Fred E. Beer, chairman of the county board of supervisors, announced that he would conduct a conservative campaign based on his record of eight years of efficient, honest administration of county affairs. Beer seeks to be re-elected to post of supervisor from the second district.

"The welfare of San Mateo county comes first in every matter brought before me as a member of the board," Beer said today.

Beer, who has been a resident of San Mateo for 35 years was for 26 years one of the peninsula's leading automobile dealers. In addition to his business activities Beer has been active in civic affairs being a past president of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce.

He entered public life first as a member of the San Mateo City council and served as mayor of the community for two years. Beer was a member of the San Mateo County Planning commission and in 1934 was elected to the board of supervisors. He has twice been re-elected to the office and a year and a half ago was made chairman of the board.

Edward R. McDonald

Edward R. McDonald, San Mateo County supervisor from the fifth district (Burlingame and Millbrae) has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election at the August primaries.

McDonald was appointed to the county post last year following the resignation of Jack Lynch.

In filing for the position, McDonald told reporters: "My efforts as a county official and as a city official are a matter of public record. Few problems which present themselves to a public officer are easily solved, but, as in my personal life and in my business affairs, I have never evaded an issue. Because I believe each act has not only consequences but responsibilities, I have tried to consider every civic interest and public betterment involved in an issue before making a decision."

McDonald reaffirmed his pledge to continue harmony and cooperation to assure further progress of the county. He has long been interested in the affairs of Burlingame and San Mateo county and at present is the active chairman of the Three Cities Defense council, comprising Burlingame, San Mateo and Hillsborough. He is also vice-chairman of the San Mateo County Defense council.

scrap. He appeals to Americans to contribute every piece of scrap available.

Plans for iron and steel scrap collections have been virtually completed. War Production Board officials estimated that 88,000,000 tons of steel would be needed for war and essential civilian uses this year, and that one-fourth of this would be in the form of scrap picked up from the farm lots, the cellars and the industrial boneyards of the country.

Mixed with pig iron, the scrap is needed to keep the nation's furnaces running. Last Winter, according to WPB Chief Nelson, as many as fifteen furnaces were shut down because they lacked scrap.

About 35 or 37 million tons of the nation's 89-million-ton annual capacity is reliant upon scrap. The balance is dependent on pig iron. And there isn't enough pig iron coming out of blast furnaces to take the place of scrap. That's why the help of each Daly City resident is so important.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

State Superintendent

Dr. Richard Carlyle

Pledged to a revival of fundamental education in California public schools, Dr. Richard F. Carlyle has announced his candidacy for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

"We must teach our children to be literate before we can teach them to be literary," said Dr. Carlyle. The office he seeks is non-partisan.

An educator, economist and author, Dr. Carlyle has a deep-seated conviction that the crying need of the hour is to place greater emphasis on the development of leadership, character, citizenship, and that the schools should place more stress on the mastery of the fundamental subjects of reading, writing and arithmetic.

County Coroner

William Crosby

Statement of William Crosby, candidate for San Mateo County Coroner and Public Administrator: "In presenting my candidacy to the electorate for re-election to the office of Coroner and Public Administrator, which I have held for eight years, I do so with the firm conviction that I have given the people of San Mateo county an efficient administration for their tax dollars.

" I have tried to perform the duties of the coroner's office with a sympathetic understanding of the problems peculiar to the office.

"In these troubled times every good American, including county officials, must co-operate to the fullest extent with the Federal government to the end that our lives and homes may be adequately protected and our war resources utilized effectively.

"An intensive political campaign seems to me to be out of place in a world at war, with all the emergencies arising from that war. Owing to pressure of official work, increased by war activities, which include membership on the executive committee of the County Civilian Defense, it will be difficult for me to meet the electorate as much as I would like in the time between now and the primary election. I shall therefore rely on my record of service and ask for your support, August 25, at the primary polls. If elected, I pledge myself to a continuation of sincere and conscientious conduct of the office, in your behalf."

Dr. J. C. McGovern

Dr. J. C. McGovern, local dentist and chairman of the draft board here, has announced his candidacy for the office of San Mateo County Coroner and Public Administrator, an office which he held prior to 1935. On announcing his intention of running for public office, Dr. McGovern today issued the following statement:

"In presenting my candidacy, I feel that I am thoroughly qualified by experience. I know every foot of San Mateo county, and I know all the phases of the coroner's work.

"I am a graduate of our local grammar schools, Lowell high school in San Francisco, and the University of California. For the past two years, I have been chairman of Selective Service Board No. 103, and I am chairman of the Procurement Assignment committee of San Mateo county for the federal government.

"It is my patriotic duty to continue to serve the government in these capacities, and I will not be able to make the campaign I would like to make while our country is at war. I will meet the electorate over the radio and through the local press. I ask the support of the people on one basis only:—my record as a private citizen and a former public official.

"Since 1917 I have been associated with one of the finest of youth movements, the Boy Scouts of America, and as a good scout I can make no stronger promise than this: "On my honor I will do my best."

Cheer the boys in uniform. Buy U. S. Defense Bonds.

The Daly City Record, following its traditional open-door policy of presenting ALL candidates and ALL sides of each issue to its readers, this week brings you thirteen announcement stories of men seeking office. Several weeks ago, The Record wrote to each candidate and requested information for an announcement story which would outline his qualifications to Daly City readers. Not all have responded, but on this page will be found a story for each of the candidates who did reply.

County Executive

Frederick Peterson

"To continue to operate the county executive and purchasing agent's office on a strict business basis and save the taxpayers' money" was the pledge made today by County Executive Frederick Peterson (incumbent) in his campaign for re-election.

Peterson's list of qualifications and his public office experience include two terms in the California State assembly (1931-33 and 1933-35), Burlingame City councilman (1927-31), first president of the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce and first commander of the Burlingame Post No. 1635, American Legion.

Prior to 1938 the county executive and purchasing agent was appointed by the board of supervisors. In that year the office was changed to an elective status, and Peterson was the first executive elected by popular vote, As an elective position the office helps to maintain the democratic policies of checks and balances in governmental functions, and Peterson declared that in running for re-election he would continue to act independently in the interests of San Mateo county citizens and taxpayers to whom he is directly responsible.

H. H. Smith Sr.

In announcing his candidacy for the office of San Mateo county executive, H. H. Smith sr. pointed to his years of service as a public official. He has held the following offices: mayor of Daly City, eighteen years; chairman of board of fire commissioners, two years; member of San Mateo County Social Service commission, seven years; member of San Mateo County Planning commission, four years; chairman of the county board of supervisors, four years.

The candidate said: "Varied activities and experiences including banking, farming, stock raising, many successful business ventures and 24 years harmonious leadership in public offices, qualify me to administer this office in a pleasant and efficient manner."

Smith's Daly City sponsors include Mrs. Ethel Dorn, Thomas P. Tallon, and Joseph Garibaldi. In Colma, Louis Nava is his sponsor.

Board Of Equalization

George R. Reilly

In announcing his candidacy for re-election as member of the State Board of Equalization, first district, George R. Reilly, stated:

"In conformity with American principles and democratic procedure every elective public official must come before the electorate from time to time to give an account of his stewardship. In giving such an account he submits the record of his conduct in office to a most searching inquiry. In addition to that it is expected that he should indicate to his constituents the general plans of government and administration he has in contemplation for the future.

"Concerning my record in office I can state that I have devoted my whole time and attention to the problems of state government insofar as they fell within the province of my office. I recognized that the State Board of Equalization, with its manifold duties, is one of the most responsible and important agencies of the state government.

"Insofar as the future is concerned, I can only state that if returned to office I will continue to be a loyal supporter of our constitutional form of government and I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office to the best of my ability. I will benefit by the experience of the past and will keep in close touch with the people of my district to the end that laws and regulations may be reasonably enforced and fairly interpreted in the light of common needs and public good."

State Treasurer

Charles G. Johnson

Basing his candidacy on his thorough knowledge of finance, together with twenty years as state treasurer, Charles G. Johnson launched his campaign for re-election for that office.

"The people of California today and for the next several years are facing serious governmental problems. Most of them are financial and economic in character" said Johnson. "It is therefore essential that the office of state treasurer be occupied by an official with a thorough knowledge of these problems.

"In asking the voters of all political parties for their support, I give them assurance that the administration of the office of state treasurer will continue to be strictly non-partisan and will be conducted along the same efficient business lines which has characterized the administration of the office during the past twenty years. I offer this experience in governmental affairs, and my earnest devotion to the welfare of all the people of California, and appeal for the continuation of their confidence."

ty to turn in the names of speeders to the board. All applicants are checked against this "black list" before they are issued permits to buy tires and other rationed automobile equipment.

Explaining future requirements in applying for purchase permits, Fagan said:

"Applicants must submit an affidavit to the local board, swearing that the vehicle upon which the tire or tube is to be mounted has not been operated at a speed in excess of forty miles per hour, after Wednesday, July 15, except as specifically stated in the affidavit."

If the applicant fails to submit such an affidavit, or if the affidavit shows use in excess of forty miles an hour, which use the applicant cannot justify, the board may deny the certificate.

line, and into a ditch below the tracks.

However, the project will serve the purpose only temporarily, since the city is working on a more expansive project.

Although the latter was under consideration for immediate work, the council decided to set up the temporary plan first. Reason for this action was that gaining permits and establishing funds for a major installation would entail considerable time.

Governor

Daly City Group Tells Endorsements

At a recent meeting, the Daly City Democratic club, which meets at 252 Los Banos avenue, announced their endorsements for candidates for public office in the coming elections.

They gave their support to Culbert L. Olson, for governor; Ellis E. Paterson, for lieutenant governor; Robert W. Kenny, for attorney general; Ethel J. Nuckolls, for assembly; and David T. Bunker, for congressman.

County Group Supports Warren For Governor

A strong and enthusiastic committee of both democrats and republicans has been formed in San Mateo county to unite efforts to elect Earl Warren for governor. Under the leadership of Edmund Scott, Redwood City, the committee is being enlarged and it is expected that its influence will be felt throughout the county and state.

Two Daly City residents, Thomas P. Tallon, and Howard A. McHugh, hold high posts in the committee. Tallon is vice-chairman, and McHugh is secretary. Approximately 75 local people are serving on the non-partisan committee which seeks Warren's election.

Tax Collector

Ralph MacArthur

Ralph C. MacArthur, building contractor and realtor, former manager for the Bank of America, has filed nomination papers for the post of tax collector to replace Ambrose McSweeney who is retiring from the office.

MacArthur is well known in San Mateo county having served in official capacities with banks in Burlingame and Daly City, and in addition has had many years experience in business management and general contracting. He was also a director of the United States Housing Authority of San Mateo county and a director of the San Mateo County Floral Fiesta.

Among his sponsors are: J. E. McCurdy, Dr. F. P. Callsen, A. J. Eschelbach, Carlton Bessett, George Lagomarsino, E. P. Hickey, J. F. Crown.

William Feary

William J. (Bill) Feary fired the opening gun in his campaign for tax collector today, when he declared he has received pledges of support from every section of the county. Feary has been a resident of this county for 25 years, and has been engaged in the building supply business. For twenty years he managed a building material firm.

Feary has taken an active interest in civic and political affairs of the county for many years, and this is his first time to seek public office. He announced today he is seeking the tax collector's job on the basis of his record of civic and business service in the country. He declared he has just completed a survey of the county, and is much encouraged by the reports he has received.

"The office of tax collector for San Mateo county is an important one," Feary declared, "because the incumbent must be a trained business executive capable of handling collections that total more than $4,000,000 a year. In addition his integrity and honesty must be above reproach, and I believe after 25 years in this county people are sufficiently well acquainted with my record to know that I can meet these qualifications. The people of this county can be assured if they select me to be their tax collector I shall devote my full time and energy to the office."

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

★ A list of money-saving foods
★ A timely story with a moral

This is a lesson in shopping that's worth reading

Because the war has made "time" more precious than ever before, it has become practically a patriotic duty to streamline our daily schedules as much as possible. This means our food buying habits must change. For one of the best ways to save time is to cut shopping trips down by planning menus and market lists a week in advance. These suggestions from the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau should help you in your planning.

Perishability is the best guide for dividing off your purchases. Staples like flour, salt, potatoes, canned and packaged goods can be bought weeks in advance. It's wise to replace them as soon as they're used, so you won't be caught short and, too, so you won't have to carry huge armloads at the end of the week.

Extra-heavy purchases can be saved for times when you'll have your car or can share a neighbor's, lightening your bundles on other days. And another thing, enough citrus fruits, bacon, coffee, butter, and eggs can be bought all in one trip to last a week or more. With these out of the way early in the week, you'll need to think only about buying perishable foods.

Foods that will keep 3 to 4 days without spoiling include most meats; vegetables like carrots, turnips, beets, parsnips, squash, egg plant, corn, tomatoes; most under-ripe fruits and the like. Buying these foods in advance saves extra shopping trips.

The most perishable foods, those which will keep only a day or two, are fresh green and leafy vegetables; ripe fresh fruits; fresh fish, chicken, and ground meats; fresh dairy products; bread, cake, pastry.

To get your money's worth in vitamins and minerals, use fresh leafy and green vegetables the same day you buy them. As soon as you get them home, wash them quickly in a small amount of water, drain, and keep them in a covered container in the refrigerator until just ready to use. Don't pare or cut the vegetables until just time to cook or serve. Exposure to warm air, soaking in water, and cutting vegetables all tend to cause loss of vitamins and minerals.

No Vacation This Year for Your Appliances

YOUR APPLIANCES WITH TIMELY REPAIR

Of course, You and Your Family are going to ease the tension of these war times with some kind of a vacation this year. It is going to be good for you and yours to relax and become a world of your own, apart from the world. But there will be no vacation for the appliances in your home.

Every one of your appliances will be used more because you will be at home more these days. You will be taking better care of your home and its furnishings. That puts wartime duty upon your washing machine, your range, your vacuum cleaner, your refrigerator, your iron or ironer.

So it is up to you to keep all of your home appliances running smoothly and efficiently. They are the mechanized equipment on the home front. Duration-ize with timely repair. You will be wise to do it while factory-made replacement parts are still available.

"Daffy Draftees" In Ice Follies

Comedy of a new type is presented by Shipstad and Johnson in their all-new Ice Follies of 1942, now showing nightly at Winterland in San Francisco.

For the first time on any ice surface, a group comedy number, "The Daffy Draftees," is offered in the latest edition of the world's greatest musical revue on ice. It brings together a cast of ten in a hilarious pantomimic skit that portrays the trials and tribulations of eight confused neophytes in Uncle Sam's armed forces, as they answer their first reveille.

A squad on skates is something new under the sun and might well be recommended to the War department to take its place beside the new ski-troops and parachute battalions that have lately been added to the army.

Mass comedy is one of the most difficult arts in the entertainment world. It requires perfect synchronization and timing so that the gag or gesture of one participant does not nullify or detract from the actions of the others. It took more than three months of solid rehearsal to perfect the new "Daffy Draftees" routine.

Another special daytime showing of the complete night program of the Ice Follies, with all of the 103 international stars appearing, has been announced for Saturday, July 18. The matinee will start at 2:30 p. m.

Oranges are plentiful. Oranges are healthful. Oranges supply Vitamin C. Oranges may be turned into scores of beverages, salads and desserts that call for no sugar.

So why not buy oranges in quantity, store them in the refrigerator and draw upon them two or three times a day for the morning orange juice and such delicacies as the following?

Orange Melon Delight

1 medium sized honey dew melon
8 oranges
2 lemons

Chill melon and scoop out 24 balls. Extract juice from rest of melon, oranges and lemons. Combine melon juice, orange and lemon juice, and chill well. Fill glasses adding melon balls as a garnish. Serve cold.

Best Yet Salad

2 oranges, cut in pieces
2 cups orange juice

Place ingredients in refrigerator tray and chill to slushy ice. Cut in round pieces with a biscuit cutter and serve on chilled lettuce leaves with French Dressing.

Dessert Salad

4 oranges, cut in small cubes
1 cup coconut

Mix two ingredients and chill. May be served on salad plates plain, with whipped cream dressing or mayonnaise.

Boys of Scout Troop No. 101 walked away with many awards during their stay at Camp Don Bosco, recently.

Merit badges in swimming were given to the following boys: Gerald Roots, Jack Ferro and Bob Coughlin. The entire group of fifteen passed tests for their cement and masonry merit badges.

Frank Coughlin, scoutmaster, announces that all the boys passed their advancement tests.

The boys are now busily engaged in working on their Junior First Aid. The entire troop is taking up air scouting, a new program in scouting.

Next month the boys of the troop will meet with the Holy Name Society for another baseball game. Losers of the contest will have to do the dishes at their monthly breakfasts for three months.

Plans for a court of honor are being worked out. The court will be held after the opening of school. Awards won at camp will be given at that time.

Make Boy Arsonists Juvenile Court Wards

Two San Francisco boys, who admitted starting several fires in Colma and one in Daly City, recently were made wards of the San Mateo county juvenile court, and were transferred to San Francisco authorities.

A third boy, who lives in Colma, found to be an accomplice of the two San Francisco youths in their role as arsonists, was also made a court ward, but his case was continued.

Horsemen Plan Sunday Barbecue

Ed Allen, local official of the San Mateo County Horsemen's association, announced, Monday, plans for a barbecue and a day of sports sponsored by the association, at Crystal Lake stables, Sunday.

The sports will include many horse events, such as racing and stock horse activities. Prizes will be given to winners.

SCHEDULE THREE BASEBALL GAMES

Three baseball games are on tap for Daly City fans, Sunday, at Jefferson field and Marchbank field, sponsored by the Daly City WPA Recreation department.

Daly City's Farrallone Packers, fast semi-pro club, which inaugurated their first year with a seven game winning streak, this season, will meet the San Francisco Seal Juniors at 11 a. m. This game will be played at Marchbank field and promises to yield plenty of excitement. The visitors are backed by the Seals of the coast league.

The second game at Marchbank field will pit the Daly City Juniors against the McLaren Boys' club at 2:30 p. m.

At Jefferson field, the Signal Corps 234, United States Army, will cross bats with an opponent which was un-named when baseball bookings were reported, Tuesday.

This Burglar Only Wanted Cookies

The second burglary in less than a week was reported to the local police, Friday, but, again, nothing of value was taken.

Pacific Coast Aggregates' plant on Junipero Serra boulevard was the scene of this second break. Charles Barron, yard foreman at the plant, called the Daly City Police department, early Friday morning, to report that someone had broken into a building there.

Investigation by Officer Ed Heim revealed that the entrance into the building was gained by breaking a small window. Two small footprints were found under the wiodnw and a small box of cookies was all that was missing.

Five D. C. Boys Help With Harvest

Five Daly City boys were among 160 youths from San Mateo county and San Francisco high schools who left, Friday, to work on fruit ranches in California for the summer.

The enthusiastic group of high school boys was bound for Marysville high school where they will be housed. They enlisted in the forces who are helping to save the nation's food crops. The program was brought about because of the shortage of farm help this summer, and it is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. in San Francisco.

Jefferson Union high school contributed four to the harvest forces in Bill Fisher, 680 Hanover street; Donald Evans, 294 Hillcrest drive; Sidney Pate, 47 Eastlake avenue; and Lyle Van Der Werff, 452 Santa Barbara avenue. Another Daly City boy who enlisted with the contingent was Harvey Baldwin.

The boys were picked up by a bus, early Friday morning, bedrolls, baggage, and all, and they were off to the farm!"
